

Well, now let us just glance for a moment at the past, and see how the conduct of the very particular and especial friends of Mr. Van Buren during last summer, corresponds with these protestations. It will be recollected that we pointed out again and again in the course of the campaign, the lukewarmness, the cold indifference, which pervaded the Van Buren section of the democratic party in this State. It was in the midst of this ominous state of affairs, that the "secret circular" was issued, the pernicious tendency of which was universally admitted; and there cannot be a doubt, that if the signs of its authors had not been timely detected and frustrated, the most serious disaster to the fortunes of Mr. Polk in this State, would have been produced. As it was, the movement was not without its injurious effect. And then, it will be well recollected, how systematically the old leaders of the party hung back and kept aloof from the public gatherings of the democracy, and when they were dragged forth reluctantly to take active part in the

Such is a fair sample of the respectable literature of the "Bible party!"

MR. ANDERSON IN PHILADELPHIA.—The theatrical "revival" appears to be as great in Philadelphia, as it has been in this city. Nothing is talked about but Anderson's singing, and the Chesnut street theatre is crowded to excess every night. Since we have no doubt it will be with Anderson wherever he goes.

CARD ENGRAVING.—We perceive by an advertisement in another column, that Jervis, of Broadway, one of the finest engravers in the country, is prepared to aid in the great fashionable movements of the age—by furnishing elegant cards for soirées, balls, weddings and other elegant re-unions of the clubs.

ARRIVALS.—Hon. T. H. Moore, of Maine; Hon. H. Hamlin, do; Hon. B. White, do; Hon. J. P. Hale, of Dover, N. H.; members of Congress, arrived at Howards' Hotel yesterday en route for Washington.

vidence, where the landum was proposed, was on the phial.

Superior Court.
Before a Full Bench.

Nov. 27.—Decisions.—Leri & Mills, et al. vs. John Hanna.—An appeal from the order of the court—that the order from Chambers be modified so as to permit the plaintiff to discontinue his suit on payment of $100—costs of the motion within ten days after notice of rule, otherwise the order in Chambers to stand confirmed.

John S. Huts, et al. vs. Geo. Knorr, et al.—Appeal dismissed.—Order of the court confirmed with costs, $75.

John Peters vs. Samuel N. Carr.—New trial denied.

© Horace Butler vs. The Mayor, &c.—Motion for new trial denied. Judgment for plaintiff.

U. S. Circuit Court.
Nov. 27.—The Grand Jury are in session. His Honor Judge Bates discharged the petit jury until Monday next, no jury cases being ready.

Court Calendar—This Day.
COMMON PLEAS.—Nos. 32, 111, 33, 28, 37, 55, 11, 36, 40.

APPOINTMENT BY THE PRESIDENT.—J. B. Lacey, of Virginia, to be Consul of the United States for the port of New York, in the Island of Cuba, in the place of William Hogan.

gave rise to. A large number of boarders in the upper stories escaped with great difficulty, some of them losing their money and clothes, and others their lives. Mr. Little, who was taken to the County House. One person lost his watch and his wallet, containing a considerable quantity of money, which he left under his pillow. Mr. Little lost his trunk, containing his clothing, and a large quantity of furniture, winter stores, and about $170 in cash, a part of which only is saved. The other occupants of the building, however, escaped with but few exceptions. There were also considerable sufferers, and we do not learn that either of these were insured. The premiums were owned by the Hartford, the Merchants' and Marine, the New York, and the New England, the Warren, Trumbull County, Ohio, and were under an insurance of $2000 in the Etna Office, Hartford. Peter Tomlinson, the former occupant, and also the late John W. Warren, Trumbull County, Ohio, the building was an old one, formerly owned by Russell Clark, and occupied one of the most eligible positions in the city. The fire was caused by a defective chimney, and in accordance with the style and spirit of the age. The loss in this respect will be a public gain.—New Haven Herald, Nov. 26.

Many persons have bet on 4000 whig majority, and as the majority will exceed that, if the full Hyde vote be secured, the whigs will have no difficulty in adjusting the wagers. —Baldwin Register.

NAVIGATING THE CHICKASAW. — A steamer has just started on this river called the Piney Wood which is intended during the ensuing season to convey cotton, produce and passengers from Howze's landing to the mouth of the river. The fare is 25 cents; dry barrels from Howze's landing; all below, $2 50 per bale. Price of freight from New Orleans to Howze's river, and all intermediate points, 10 cents per barrel; dry barrels, 10 cents; sacks of coffee and salt, 10; measurement, 50 cents; small parcels requiring especial care, from 25 to 50 cents. The southern line of which is Howze's landing, and passing through Vannoy and Greene, enters the Pascagoula at the mouth of the river. The improvement in the facilities of our southern trade. This piney woods voyage, as it is called, is destined at no remote period to become a valuable portion of our business. —Mississippi Reformer.

GEORGE MOUNT VERNON is not for sale, as the proposition to buy it for Mr. Clay would imply. The Alexandria Gazette says, "We have to contradict the story now a-days, about once every year. It is a tradition of the present excellent proprietors, and his descendants who bear the name of Washington."

Carried to inquire into the conduct of the President, they were petrified with consternation and alarm. The movement of the President, however, was a grand discovery on the subject of the invasion of Texas determined upon by Santa Anna, shrugged their shoulders and smiled contemptuously. They were not a little disappointed that they viewed the inflated idea as preposterous in the extreme.

There were lying at Sacrificios, two French men-of-war, the Le Porcu and Le Mercure, and one English frigate. In the upper harbor a few merchant men were anchored, but their cargoes were not landed. The trade and commerce being too much troubled and interrupted at this principal of the Mexican seaports.

At this place, Philip Falouts, Com. Sands, and Vandalia, Com. Chaucey, are now getting ready for sea at this place, having received orders some days since. The Le Porcu, Le Mercure, and the Le Vainqueur, Com. Falouts, the Balz, Galveston, Tampico, Vera Cruz, Sisal and Campechy; thence will go to the island of Cuba.

There is a small schooner, the Le Vainqueur, which may again visit the island of Hayti and the Caribbean group—St. Domingo, San Domingo, and so on, which will be a pleasant voyage. The schooner is a small vessel, but a good rhyme or reason—isn't, false or true—as such will give it you; for it would not do to spread the news of a vessel's capture, and the Le Vainqueur is a small vessel, and should be afraid it would blow ill-nick to all the future movements of the great improvements contemplated in the naval service.—Cor. N. O. File, Nov. 19.